ORATOR

1947

THE SONG OF LITTLE HENRY

Should you ask us, whence this Saga?
Whence these legends and traditions,
With the gladness of Homecoming
With the spirit, noise of Pep Fests
With the odors of the Chem. Lab,
With the morning rush to home rooms
With the fear and trepidation
On our journey to the Dean's room.
We should answer, we should tell you,
"From the buzzing, cluttered hallways,
From the quiet, sleepy classrooms,
Of our wigwam, Patrick Henry."
You, whose heads are fresh and simple,
Who believe that in all dealings
Every teacher's heart is human
In their struggles to enlighten,
Listen to this crude endeavor
To this Song of Little Henry.

PUBLISHED BY THE STUDENTS OF HENRY
HIGH SCHOOL, MINNEAPOLIS, MINNESOTA

"I'll just have to clean that closet out one of these days!!!"

To celebrate the school's Twentieth Anniversary, Mr. Porter, assisted by Diane Mayhew, at long last gets around to cleaning out his "Fibber" McGee-like closet with its twenty years' accumulation of souvenirs.

"Watch out for your finger!!"

Jeanne Kasmar is seeing that "Old Grads" Bailey and Engebretsen receive an ample portion of turkey at the Thanksgiving Banquet honoring Henry veterans.

The Sweetheart of Henry High!

Margie Stacy and Jean Westlund provide a Valentine background while Pat Vollum twirls her baton to the tune of "Let Me Call You Sweetheart," between halves of the Henry-Central basketball game at the University of Minnesota Field House.

IN THE BRIGHT AND GLEAMING SUNSHINE
PLAY THE TRIBES OF LITTLE HENRY

The Patrick Henry War Memorial Dedication services took place at Porter Field early in October.

A bronze tablet inscribed with the names of the Henry boys who gave their lives in World War II is mounted on the base of the flag pole.

Mayor Humphrey and several dignitaries from the North Side were in attendance.

LITTLE HENRY'S COUNSELORS

Who are these that guide our footsteps?

With their learning guide our footsteps?

K. P. Horschgen, the great boaster

Ho the marvelous story-teller;

as he ambles onward

With his ever-present briefcase:

Davis chugging toward the wigwam

In his Buick, vintage, ancient.

These, among our loyal chieftains

Aid the tribe of Little Henry.

LITTLE HENRY'S BROTHERS

Down the paths of learning wander
Braves and maidens, fresh and eager,
"Wahoo" with his cat-like swagger,
'Bates," the idle mischiefmaker.
Not like other maidens, Mona
Sang of "Euch" and love undying;
Dear, too, unto Little Henry
Was the very strong man, Roberts.
Who shall say what thoughts and visions
Fill the brains of Dick and Harry?
Handsome of all the maidens
Was the fair one, Queen Patricia.
These and many others like them
Form the tribe of Little Henry.

LITTLE HENRY'S POW-WOWS

Full of zeal was Little Henry
Full of love for fun and frolic,
Going forth to tribal meetings
Gathr'ing with his Hi-Y Brothers.
For the Maiden, Henrietta
There were Bue Tri and Horizon.

Many moons the Council gathered,
Tried and judged their fellow warriors.

Splendid with their paint and plumage,
Beautiful with flags and pom-poms,
Drilled and polished very smoothly,
Came the Band of Little Henry.

HI-Y CLUBS—The Hi-Y clubs are active at Henry. Many of the important social events of the school year are provided by Y club parties. Each Hi-Y has its own special project, such as filing Thanksgiving letters to the boys in the hospital, the Red Cross, the Christmas party for the poor, and the like. The clubs are also active in the school and community. Each club meeting provides the boys with an opportunity for experience in leadership, self expression, and public devotions.

LITTLE HENRY'S CONQUESTS

Forth upon the fields of Conquest
Armed with all their warlike weapons,
Fired with fight and inspiration
Came the braves of Little Henry.

Forth upon the fields of battle,
Led by Chieftains, Cleve and Dammann
With their heroes, Sparks, Adamski,
Gus, and Claude the Mighty Midget.

These, and many, many others
Were the braves who fought for Henry
In all combats fought with valor
That the tribe might be Victorious.

FOOTBALL

The unconquerable Henry spirit gained momentum throughout the season to reach its climax in the final game with West. Early in the season, Henry, held the defending champions West 13 to 13 tie. The Henryites preceded with a Homecoming victory by tipping Southwest 7 to 6; continuing their winning ways, the Patriots upset Marshal in a rough score of 6 to 0.

In the final contest, an inspired Henry eleven met West, the city champions, in the most spectacular game of the year. The home side of Pat fought a see-saw battle and tied the Cowboys four times, only to lose in the final minutes thus closing the most highly spirited season in the history of Patrick Henry Football!

APPARATUS

Twenty-five boys in the heavy, A apparatus class participated in the city and North West meet at Central High. The outstanding performers for Henry were Allen Hodge and Walter Hodge. The latter being an all-around athlete won first in the upper 'A' lower meet class. 'D' took 4th place while in the state meet they took a 5th. In the meantime the class 'C' took 7th in the state meet.

Many of the boys were out during the day and a few were out for the night.

WRESTLING

As far as regards to the city, etc. the Henry matmen did better than they expected to. Under coaching by Captain Don Baker, the squad furnished trouble for all the city teams. Besides Baker other boys who showed ability were Don Sparks and Dwight Bray, who took first in the city and third in the state meet.

Coach Bill Lundel's grapplers took a second team from Reynolds in the city meet and took the crown of a minor division.

Allen Hodge proved to be one of the best card players in the city and state meet. He won first in the city and state meet.

LITTLE HENRY'S PASTIMES

You shall learn how Little Henry
Cheered the victors at Homecoming
Went campaigning for his favorite
In the Senior Class elections.

You shall see how Little Henry
Clad in all his richest raiment
Danced at A-B Senior Parties
Hands unskilful, feet unwilling
How he ventured out on Prom night
Courting Little Henrietta

You shall hear how Little Henry
Forsaking all his classroom labors
Played and frolicked in the Wigwam,
Ever frolicked in the Wigwam.

(The following information was obtained from the records of the Department of Health, Education and Welfare, Washington, D.C.)

1. The first part of the document discusses the importance of maintaining accurate records of all transactions, including sales, purchases, and expenses. It emphasizes the need for a systematic approach to record-keeping, such as using a ledger or accounting software, to ensure that all financial data is properly documented and organized.

2. The second part of the document focuses on the importance of regular financial review and analysis. It suggests that business owners should conduct a thorough review of their financial statements on a regular basis, typically monthly or quarterly, to identify trends, assess performance, and make informed decisions about the future of the business.

3. The third part of the document discusses the importance of budgeting and financial planning. It encourages business owners to create a realistic budget for their business, taking into account all expected income and expenses, and to regularly compare actual results against the budget to identify areas for improvement.

4. The fourth part of the document addresses the importance of understanding and managing cash flow. It explains that cash flow is the lifeblood of any business and that maintaining a healthy cash flow is essential for the long-term success of the business. It provides tips on how to monitor cash flow, manage receivables and payables, and avoid common cash flow problems.

5. The fifth part of the document discusses the importance of seeking professional advice and assistance. It suggests that business owners should consult with a qualified accountant or financial advisor to ensure that they are following best practices and complying with all relevant tax laws and regulations.

LITTLE HENRY'S FAREWELL

Forth into the wigwam went he,
Bade farewell to all his classmates.
Bade farewell to all his counsellors.
Then he spoke to all who helped him
Make a record of the school year,
Giving thanks for all assistance.

'To the Bureau of Engraving
Also to Mrs. Robertson
To Mr. Franz and Mr. Segal,
To the Harrison-Smith Printers
And to King Features Syndicate,
For the use of Little Henry,
I give my appreciation."

"Now I'm going, O my comrades,
To a long deserved vacation."

Thus departed Little Henry
With the memory of the school year,
From the wigwam, Patrick Henry.
